2,162 Allamakee County residents directly benefited from ISU Extension and Outreach education. We’re focused on feeding people, keeping them healthy, helping communities prosper and thrive, and turning the world over to the next generation better than we found it. That’s how we’re building a strong Iowa.

Iowa State University’s science-focused business assistance program is a key problem solver for Allamakee County businesses. The Center for Industrial Research and Service (CIRAS) provided engineering services to 23 businesses in the last five years including:

The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) serving Allamakee County assisted 15 clients last year, helping to create or retain 3 jobs and offering 50 hours of small business training.
