2,821 Buchanan County residents enrolled in educational offerings and an estimated 2,700 directly benefited from interactions with ISU Extension and Outreach – covering the entire lifespan, from our youngest to oldest Iowans. We're focused on feeding people, keeping them healthy, empowering communities, and turning the world over to the next generation better than we found it. That's how we're building a strong Iowa.

Iowa State University's science-focused business assistance program is a key problem solver for Buchanan County businesses. The Center for Industrial Research and Service (CIRAS) provided engineering services to 6 businesses year.

The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) serving Buchanan County assisted 15 clients last year, helping to create or retain 10 jobs.
