- 16 students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 15 students in the College of Business
- 14 students in the College of Engineering
- 12 students in the College of Human Sciences
- 7 students in the College of Design
- 1 student in the College of Veterinary Medicine
- 14 Clay County students were on ISU's 2018 Spring Honor Roll

487 ISU Alumni reside in Clay County including:

- 65 in Agriculture
- 28 Pre K/K-12 Educators
- 13 Engineers
- 8 Veterinarians
- 6 in Banking/Finance
- 4 Architects

2,334 Clay County residents enrolled in educational offerings and an estimated 6,900 directly benefited from interactions with ISU Extension and Outreach – covering the entire lifespan, from our youngest to oldest Iowans. We're focused on feeding people, keeping them healthy, empowering communities, and turning the world over to the next generation better than we found it. That's how we're building a strong Iowa.

Iowa State University's science-focused business assistance program is a key problem solver for Clay County businesses. The Center for Industrial Research and Service (CIRAS) provided engineering services to 14 businesses last year.

The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) serving Clay County assisted 36 clients last year, helping to create or retain 56 jobs and start 3 new businesses.
