1,354 Crawford County residents enrolled in educational offerings and an estimated 3,900 directly benefited from interactions with ISU Extension and Outreach – covering the entire lifespan, from our youngest to oldest Iowans. We're focused on feeding people, keeping them healthy, empowering communities, and turning the world over to the next generation better than we found it. That's how we're building a strong Iowa.

Iowa State University's science-focused business assistance program is a key problem solver for Crawford County businesses. The Center for Industrial Research and Service (CIRAS) provided engineering services to 5 businesses last year.

The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) serving Crawford County assisted 20 clients last year, helping to create or retain 5 jobs and start 1 new business.
